

Project 3 – A thermoplastic polyurethane elastomers Company

Company Overview

- Established in 2005; the company is a joint venture corporate specialized in the development, production of thermoplastic polyurethane elastomers (TPU), with international advanced production equipment
- lead by experienced foreign technical adviser team who has significant achievements in scientific research, and awarded numbers of independent intellectual property rights and patents
- Products have been successfully applied in many fields such as tubing, film sheet, sports and leisure product, agriculture, automotive, wire and cable, electronics, and recognized by customers and increase market reputation year by year
- The company continues to develop thermoplastic polyurethane elastomers and other specialty products

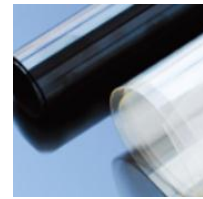

Major Products

Pipe material

Electronic device

Film sheet

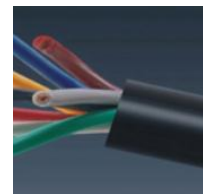

Industrial

Sports
and Leisure

Other Industry

Wire
and Cable

Automotive

