

MARVIN BODDEN

Marvin Bodden has over 35 years experience in both domestic and International Sales. In the mid 1980s Marvin represented a machine tool maker from Taiwan. As Manufactures representative. Representing the company in trade shows, consulting at large American Manufacturers. And a former member of the American Manufacturers Association.

Management Consultant with George S May International, consulting small and medium sized Companies in the U.S. In the Northeast United States. Helping to improve the botton line for companies

Provides service to specific industry sectors, including real estate, asset based lending, energy, healthcare and government.

Other highlights, commercial and residential lending. As a licensed banker. Trained bank employees. Provided radio and television commercials for mortgage companies.

As a loan team representative worked on Governor Patrick's Mass Housing Sharp Initiative, helped to determine viability of refinancing large scale housing development; initiative had strong impact on state's bond rating.

Featured on television show, Focus on America's Business, as one of the country's most creative businessmen.

Offers Management solutions to medium and large companies both domestic and International.

As a business development consultant matched projects with investors for debt and equity and tax credits nationwide and Internationally.

Former partner with International Development Group Ltd. Cayman Islands. British West Indies. Financial Offshore Consulting. Hotels, resorts and banking.

Partner and owner of Beneficial Marine Products. Bay Islands, Honduras, Central America. Products, include, fishing exports. Creating value added bi-products of fish oil, and shark oil for cancer research for the marine nutrition health product market.

Currently, Vice President and Business Development of Mortgage Store Commercial/Mortgage Store USA, LLC.

Education:

BA, Economics, and Political Science with minor in Minor in International Relations.

University of Massachusetts, Boston, MA.

Licensure

MLS License#304744, banking license.